

TRANSITIONAL DUTY POLICY

INTRODUCTION:

It is critical to develop a method to manage workers' compensation cases quickly, effectively and fairly with consideration to both employer and employee needs. It has become important to promote an active process of minimizing the impact of a physical impairment resulting from injury or illness on the individual's capacity to participate productively in the workplace. The most important goal in establishing an effective transitional duty program is to return the injured or ill employee back to full duty as soon as possible. This philosophy should apply to all employees regardless of their department, duties or responsibilities and as long as the safety of the employee, co-workers and the general public are not affected.

BENEFITS:

There are many benefits to adopting a transitional duty program. Among the most common are:

- Gain control and increase chances for positive resolution of claims.
- Retain the services of valuable trained employees.
- Maintain a productive employee for wages paid.
- Avoid replacement and training costs of hiring a new employee.
- Experience faster recoveries, both psychologically and physically.
- Reduce the chance for permanent disability.
- Discourage fraudulent claims.
- Increase morale among employees.
- Increase awareness of safe work practices and injury prevention.
- Comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) by accommodating disabilities and avoid costly lawsuits.
- Identify cross-training opportunities that enhance employees' abilities in their regular jobs.
- Overall reduction of costs associated with workers' compensation claims.

DISCLAIMER

This document does not and is not intended to address every circumstance related to transitional duty program development. This document should be modified in accordance with applicable ordinances and bargaining agreements. There may be other legal matters not contemplated that may require review by your legal staff. Where appropriate, this policy should be modified to accommodate all disabled employees.

PURPOSE:

To establish guidelines and procedures for giving transitional duty assignments to an employee who is recovering from a work-related injury or illness and has been given temporary physical work restrictions by an authorized medical provider. Transitional duty is temporary in nature.

DELEGATION OF RESPONSIBILITY:

Throughout this procedure, the designation “Transitional Duty Coordinator” has been used to signify the individual with the ultimate decision making authority in this process. As with many other personnel processes, the Transitional Duty Coordinator may delegate this responsibility to a “Designee” as deemed appropriate.

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING TRANSITIONAL DUTY ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Transitional duty is an opportunity, provided at the sole discretion of the Transitional Duty Coordinator, for an employee to remain in the workforce while recuperating from a work-related injury or illness. The program benefits both the employee and employer by saving employee leave, accelerating recovery and reducing claim costs. If an employee with work-related restrictions refuses transitional duty without a verifiable medical cause, the employee’s benefits under workers’ compensation may be adversely affected.
2. The Transitional Duty Coordinator should evaluate the work restrictions of employees injured on-the-job to determine if the employee can be assigned transitional duty. The work restrictions must be in written form from the authorized medical provider and must clearly describe the physical restrictions and limitations related to performing transitional job duties. If the Transitional Duty Coordinator has questions or needs clarification, he or she should discuss the restrictions with the authorized medical provider and the Claims Administrator before making the transitional duty assignment.
3. The Transitional Duty Coordinator’s decision to make and/or continue a transitional duty assignment should take into consideration the employee’s work restrictions including employee’s knowledge, skills, abilities, safety of the motoring public, other employees and the general public and the availability of work benefiting the department. Monitor these elements periodically throughout the duration of the assignment, but at least after every visit with an authorized medical provider.
4. A transitional duty assignment is temporary in nature. It may be a combination of various unrelated job tasks. The assignment also does not need to be for a full 40-hour workweek. Depending upon the nature of the injury or illness, transitional duty may last from one week to two months.

5. The Transitional Duty Coordinator should make transitional duty assignments with the goal of returning the employee to full duty as soon as possible. This may require the addition of or adjustments to duties included in the assignment as the employee's medical condition progresses. When a department is unable to assign suitable work, other departments may be contacted to determine if a suitable work assignment can be identified.
6. The authorized medical provider must submit a status report to the Transitional Duty Coordinator and Claims Administrator after each employee visit (See attached sample). Non-compliance with this process should be reported to the Claims Administrator immediately. The Transitional Duty Coordinator should review the transitional duty assignment after each visit with an authorized medical provider and, if advantageous for the employee and the department, allow the assignment to continue until Maximum Medical Improvement (MMI) is reached or until the employee is released to full duty.
7. The Transitional Duty Coordinator will implement Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) procedures in accordance with local policies if they become aware that an employee injured on-the-job meets the stated criteria for designation.
8. Employees will be paid in accordance with applicable policies, salary ordinances and bargaining agreements while on Transitional Duty. No overtime will be authorized unless the employee is expressly given permission by the department head. All overtime assignments must be approved in advance by the department head and must be in accordance with the transitional duty assignment set forth by the authorized medical provider.
9. Where appropriate, the employee's time card should be maintained by the department to which the employee is regularly assigned.
10. The Transitional Duty Coordinator should notify upper management and the Claims Administrator if he or she becomes aware that an injured employee may have permanent medical restrictions. Permanent restrictions should be handled differently from temporary restrictions. Permanent restrictions may also be considered as a qualified disability under the ADA.

MAKING TRANSITIONAL DUTY ASSIGNMENTS:

Making transitional duty assignments is the joint responsibility of the employer, Claims Administrator and Managed Care Provider. The Claims Administrator and authorized medical provider should continually evaluate the availability of transitional duty for all temporarily disabled employees.

1. The Transitional Duty Coordinator reviews the authorized medical provider's work restrictions and selects transitional duty assignments that are of benefit to the department

C:\Users\mollendike\AppData\Local\Microsoft\Windows\Temporary Internet Files\Content.Outlook\08NG82HD\Transitional Duty Policy
010815 Final_ACM JIF.doc

and appear to be within those restrictions (see attached Sample Transitional Duty Job Bank). This may include assignments requiring travel to alternate work locations. A transitional duty assignment does not have to be a full 40-hour workweek. The following skills may be necessary to participate in a transitional duty assignment:

- Sit or stand for some tasks.
 - Understand and follow directions and procedures.
 - Accept direction and function cooperatively.
 - Communicate effectively and coherently using telephone, or when initiating or responding to verbal communications.
 - Read and comprehend documents.
 - Exercise independent judgment.
2. When the Transitional Duty Coordinator and the supervisor determine that transitional duty is within the employee's work restrictions, the Transitional Duty Coordinator provides a letter (See Attached Sample) to the employee offering the transitional duty assignment. The letter must describe the work to be performed, state the transitional duty assignment will be reviewed periodically and state that the assignment is temporary. This letter should be handed to the employee upon arrival to work the following day. If the employee does not return to work the next day, the employee should sign and date the letter noting receipt. If it is necessary to mail the letter to the employee, it should be mailed Certified/Return Receipt with a copy placed in the personnel file.
 3. If the employee agrees to the transitional duty assignment, he or she should sign the transitional duty offer and return it to the Transitional Duty Coordinator. If the employee declines the transitional duty assignment, the employee should code his or her time in accordance with applicable policies, salary ordinances and bargaining agreements. If an employee with work-related restrictions declines a transitional duty assignment without a verified medical cause, the Transitional Duty Coordinator should immediately notify the Claims Administrator. Refusal of a transitional duty assignment may adversely affect the employee's workers' compensation benefits.
 4. If the employee's objection to a transitional duty assignment is based on a disagreement with the authorized medical provider regarding work-related restrictions, the Transitional Duty Coordinator should discuss the case with the authorized medical provider and the Claims Administrator.

COMMUNICATIONS:

1. The Transitional Duty Coordinator shall maintain the confidentiality of all medical information related to the transitional duty assignment. Only individuals with an administrative "Need to Know" shall be included in discussions on transitional duty.

- This includes department heads and Human Resources Representatives. Where applicable, the Transitional Duty Coordinator shall limit discussions with the authorized medical provider and other authorized individuals to the medical restrictions and transitional duty issues in question.
2. If the need for transitional duty arises from a work-related injury or illness, the Transitional Duty Coordinator should contact the Claims Administrator. Copies of all related correspondence shall be sent to the Claims Administrator.
 3. Questions related to transitional duty accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act and Family Medical Leave Act should be forwarded to the Personnel Department and/or municipal solicitor.
 4. Provide initial and continuous communication with employees regarding the transitional duty program (See Sample Statement)

IMPLEMENTATION:

This procedure should be adopted by resolution and enacted via policy. The procedure should be communicated to authorized medical providers, department heads and employees before being implemented.
